PRESS RELEASE

2014 OFFICER OF THE YEAR

Annually since 1982, the Mount Prospect Police Department has convened an Awards Committee, comprised of Supervisors, Patrol Officers and Investigators to select the department's "Officer of the Year". Additionally, the department also recognizes the officers that the Awards Committee felt were in the final contention for the "Officer of the Year" as "Runners-Up".

In order to be considered for the award, the officers must have consistently shown exceptional performance during the preceding 12-month rating period. The officer's ability to perform and conform to the standards of a professional police officer is pertinent to being nominated for Officer of the Year.

The 2014 award recipients were honored at the Mount Prospect Village Board meeting on Tuesday, February 17, 2015 at 7:00 PM.

2014 "OFFICER OF THE YEAR"

INVESTIGATOR JACK BROGAN

Investigator Jack Brogan is a twenty-six year veteran of the Mount Prospect Police Department and is currently assigned to the Investigations Section.

During the award period, Investigator Brogan received one Honorable Mention and three Departmental Commendations. Investigator Brogan was the “Co-Officer of the Quarter” for the fourth quarter in 2014. The Selection Committee cited Investigator Brogan’s commitment to being a police officer and all that it entails, including but not limited to his attitude, teamwork, initiative and his keen investigative skills as just a few of the factors that lead to his selection. Investigator Brogan’s supervisors and peers described him as the “go to” investigator when it came to crucial investigations.

OFFICER OF THE YEAR/RUNNERS-UP (3)

OFFICER MAUREEN KERRIGAN

Officer Maureen Kerrigan is a twenty-four year member of the Mount Prospect Police Department and is currently assigned to the Patrol Section.

During the award period, Officer Kerrigan received one Letter of Appreciation, one Exceptional Performance and one Honorable Mention. The Selection Committee cited Officer Kerrigan’s work ethic as being tireless and she can always be found helping other officers out throughout the department in any way possible as reasons for her selection as Runner-up.

INVESTIGATOR JONATHAN JUHL

Investigator Jonathan Juhl is a fourteen year veteran of the Mount Prospect Police Department and is currently assigned to the Investigations Section.

During the award period, Investigator Juhl received four Letters of Appreciation and four Departmental Commendations. Investigator Juhl was the “Co-Officer of the Quarter” for the fourth quarter in 2014. Investigator Juhl is attributed with a commitment to law enforcement by the Selection Committee, who cited his premier interviewing skills and his tenacity for the pursuit of justice for those who cannot protect themselves.

OFFICER DAVID CARLSON

Officer David Carlson is a three year veteran of the Mount Prospect Police Department and is currently assigned to the Special Operations Unit.

During the award period, Officer Carlson received one Honorable Mention and one Departmental Commendation. Officer Carlson was selected the "Officer of the Quarter" for the first quarter in 2014. The Selection Committee cited Officer Carlson's commitment, drive and enthusiasm as some of the attributes which led to his selection as Runner-up. Officer Carlson's work product and demonstrated initiative serve as a positive example worthy of emulation by all department personnel.
